1. How should we see life? – 2 Cor. 4:7-18
1. How should we see life? – 2 Cor. 4:7-18

• We live in the now and not yet
1. How should we see life? – 2 Cor. 4:7-18

- We live in the now and not yet
- To live is to set our minds on things above.
1. How should we see life? – 2 Cor. 4:7-18

- We live in the now and not yet
- To live is to set our minds on things above.
- To live is Christ.
1. How should we see life? – 2 Cor. 4:7-18

- We live in the now and not yet
- To live is to set our minds on things above.
- To live is Christ.
- To live is fruitful labor.
2. How should we see death? – 2 Cor. 5:1-10
2. How should we see death? – 2 Cor. 5:1-10

- God is sovereign over life and death.
2. How should we see death? – 2 Cor. 5:1-10

- God is sovereign over life and death.
- To die is gain.
2. How should we see death? – 2 Cor. 5:1-10

- God is sovereign over life and death.
- To die is gain.
- Our goal is to glorify God through life or death.
3. How should we see God’s promises of protection?
3. How should we see God’s promises of protection?

- All will be fulfilled – some now, all soon.
3. How should we see God’s promises of protection?

- All will be fulfilled – some now, all soon.
- As we concentrate on the kingdom, God provides all we need.
3. How should we see God’s promises of protection?

- All will be fulfilled – some now, all soon.
- As we concentrate on the kingdom, God provides all we need.
- He will be with us.
3. How should we see God’s promises of protection?

- All will be fulfilled – some now, all soon.
- As we concentrate on the kingdom, God provides all we need.
- He will be with us.
- We are more than conquerors.