Steadfast in the Word
2 Timothy 3:14-17 – Pastor Rob Ely
1. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they lead us to Christ. (vv. 14-15)
1. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they lead you to Christ. (vv. 14-15)

- The world has rejected God, they’ve rejected His Word, and in doing so they’ve rejected any standard of righteousness and have embraced a completely lawless way of life.
1. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they lead you to Christ. (vv. 14-15)

• The world has rejected God, they’ve rejected His Word, and in doing so they’ve rejected any standard of righteousness and have embraced a completely lawless way of life.

• We see Christ through all of Scripture.
1. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they lead you to Christ. (vv. 14-15)

- The world has rejected God, they’ve rejected His Word, and in doing so they’ve rejected any standard of righteousness and have embraced a completely lawless way of life.

- We see Christ through all of Scripture.

- Jesus Christ is the remedy for the brokenness of this world!
2. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are from God. (v. 16a)
2. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are from God. (v. 16a)

• We should receive the words of Scripture and respond to them just as if God were speaking them to us personally.
2. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are from God. (v. 16a)

- We should receive the words of Scripture and respond to them just as if God were speaking them to us personally.

- The Holy Spirit moved upon the writers and superintended the writing of Scripture such that the words that the human authors wrote were the exact words that God intended, to the very word. (2 Peter 1:19-21)
3. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are completely sufficient. (v. 16b-17)
3. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are completely sufficient. (v. 16b-17)

- Teaching reveals what is true.
3. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are completely sufficient. (v. 16b-17)

- Teaching reveals what is true.
- Reproof tells us that we ought not believe anything different from that truth.
3. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are completely sufficient. (v. 16b-17)

• Teaching reveals what is true.
• Reproof tells us that we ought not believe anything different from that truth.
• Correction shows us how our actions fail to line up with God’s Word and calls us to repentance.
3. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are completely sufficient. (v. 16b-17)

- Teaching reveals what is true.
- Reproof tells us that we ought not believe anything different from that truth.
- Correction shows us how our actions fail to line up with God’s Word and calls us to repentance.
- Training in righteousness trains us to walk in God’s good and right ways.
3. Remain steadfast in the Scriptures because they are completely sufficient. (v. 16b-17)

- Teaching reveals what is true.
- Reproof tells us that we ought not believe anything different from that truth.
- Correction shows us how our actions fail to line up with God’s Word and calls us to repentance.
- Training in righteousness trains us to walk in God’s good and right ways.
- The Word of God completes and equips us for every good work.
Our understanding of God’s Word will fuel our passion for God’s Word. Our passion for God’s Word will in turn fuel our commitment to God’s Word. And the level of our commitment to God’s Word will determine our obedience to God’s Word.
Steadfast in the Word

2 Timothy 3:14-17 – Pastor Rob Ely