“What’s Your Opinion?”
Matthew 16:13-17
A. Jesus Examines His Disciples (13-15)
A. Jesus Examines His Disciples (13-15)

1. Location of the Examination (13a)
A. Jesus Examines His Disciples (13-15)

1. Location of the Examination (13a)
2. Question #1 (13b-14)
A. Jesus Examines His Disciples (13-15)

1. Location of the Examination (13a)
2. Question #1 (13b-14)
3. Question #2 (15)
A. Jesus Examines His Disciples (13-15)

1. Location of the Examination (13a)
2. Question #1 (13b-14)
3. Question #2 (15)

B. Peter’s Response to Jesus (16)
A. Jesus Examines His Disciples (13-15)
   1. Location of the Examination (13a)
   2. Question #1 (13b-14)
   3. Question #2 (15)

B. Peter’s Response to Jesus (16)

C. Christ’s Confirmation to Peter (17)
LESSONS
LESSONS

1. Our eternal destiny is determined not on the basis of sincere opinions about Jesus, but rather, on the basis of absolute truth about Jesus.
LESSONS

1. Our eternal destiny is determined not on the basis of sincere opinions about Jesus, but rather, on the basis of absolute truth about Jesus.

2. The true identity of Jesus is not discovered through natural reasoning, but rather, through supernatural revelation.
“What’s Your Opinion?”
Matthew 16:13-17