2020 Advent Series
Week #3—December 13

Contrasts Between the Two Advents of Jesus
1. At His 1\textsuperscript{st} Coming, Jesus came as the \textit{light} in a \textit{dark} world.
1. At His 1st Coming, Jesus came as the light in a dark world.

◆ Darkness: silence, Satan, sin
1. At His 1st Coming, Jesus came as the light in a dark world.

- Darkness: silence, Satan, sin
- He did not completely end the darkness right away.
1. At His 1\textsuperscript{st} Coming, Jesus came as the \textbf{light} in a \textbf{dark} world.

- Darkness: \textbf{silence, Satan, sin}
- He did not \textbf{completely} end the darkness \textbf{right away}.
- He revealed \textbf{truth} and \textbf{grace}.
2. At His 2\textsuperscript{nd} Coming, Jesus will dispel the darkness altogether.
2. At His 2\textsuperscript{nd} Coming, Jesus will dispel the darkness altogether.

◊ There will be no more night.
2. At His 2\textsuperscript{nd} Coming, Jesus will dispel the darkness altogether.

◊ There will be no more night.
◊ Jesus will dispel even the presence of sin.
2. At His 2\textsuperscript{nd} Coming, Jesus will dispel the darkness altogether.

◊ There will be no more night.
◊ Jesus will dispel even the presence of sin.
◊ Satan will be deposed and vanquished.
LESSONS

- We need to see Christmas as a time to celebrate God’s grace.
LESSONS

- We need to see Christmas as a time to celebrate God’s grace.
- Christmas is a great time to share the light of Christ.
LESSONS

- We need to see Christmas as a time to celebrate God’s grace.
- Christmas is a great time to share the light of Christ.
- Christmas should cause us to expectantly look forward in faith.